

SUGGESTED PUBLICITY RELEASE

Forgiven Quartet has been spreading the good news of Jesus Christ through song and testimony for 35 years with an emphasis on the smooth harmonies exemplifying southern gospel music. The group routinely performs at Silver Dollar City in Branson, MO, has recently signed an exclusive artist agreement with The Song Garden Music Group out of Chesapeake, VA and recently performed on the main stage at the National Quartet Convention in Louisville, KY as a result of winning a National Quartet Convention Regional Artist Showcase Event.

Forgiven Quartet is one of the most highly respected and highly requested regional southern gospel quartets in the nation having ministered in 18 states. Typically presenting more than 100 concerts per year, they have also released fourteen full-length recording projects with ten songs receiving significant air-play on several Christian music stations across the nation including "God's Gonna Do It Again", "Where The Battle Is Won," "But For A Cross," which also charted on The Singing News Top 80 Chart for 2012, "Live The Gospel," "Straiten' It Out," and "There's Still A Hope," Their most recent radio releases include "Count It All Joy", "Destination Known", "His Hand On Me" and "Miracle".

Current members of the group are Mark Brooke (tenor) from Bartlesville, OK, Mark Green (lead) from Owasso, OK, David Buckingham (baritone/bass player) from Tulsa, OK and Bink Mooney from Lawton, OK.

Daywind Producer and nationally-known song writer, Marty Funderburk from Nashville, TN says, "I have had the privilege of spending many days in the studio producing nine of Forgiven Quartet's recordings. I'm very impressed with their vocal capabilities and their incredible blend. Even more impressive than this however, is their commitment to ministry and to preserving the rich heritage of southern gospel music. These are Christian gentlemen of the highest order, obviously committed to spiritual and musical excellence. You can see it in their live performances and you can hear it in their recordings. Ladies and gentlemen, I am proud to present to you, Forgiven Quartet.....Southern Gospel Music at its finest."
